- HIGHLIGHTS: The “Rat Pack” is back! While the Frank, Dean, Sammy & Joey have taken their act on the road for the final time, their legendary personas live on in tribute groups who bring back the memories and create new ones. One of the finest of groups of its kind will entertain Rotarians during Friday night dinner at the Rotary 5170 celebration. The Rat Pack was born in January 1960 when the boys were filming Ocean’s Eleven in Las Vegas. Shooting by day, they cut loose at night, assuaging boredom by becoming the Rat Pack. As Frank Sinatra once said, “We ain’t figured out ourselves what the hell we do up here, but it’s fun, baby.” If you were there, come relive the moment. If you missed them then, don’t make the mistake of missing them now. The boys wouldn’t like that!
- STAY & PLAY: Make the district celebration a mini-vacation and don’t miss out on a minute of the fun! Marriott’s discounted Rotary rate is only $109 per night. Rooms are limited so call 408-988-1500 today and mention “Rotary International District 5170 Celebration.”
